EXPERIENCE THE 2026 CPKC WOMEN'S OPEN

Golf Canada, together with CPKC and the LPGA Tour, invite you, your clients, staff, friends and family to enjoy an unparalleled entertainment experience at the 2026 CPKC Women's Open. From the opening tee shot until the final putt drops, the CPKC Women's Open will captivate your guests through a premium entertainment experience. In 2018, Brooke Henderson became the first Canadian in 45 years to win our National Women's Open and she did it again in 2025 – don't miss the opportunity to see her at Royal Mayfair Golf Club in 2026.

As one of Canada's premier sporting events, our National Women's Open Championship is considered by LPGA Tour players a must-attend event and is broadcast to audiences around the globe. The names etched on CPKC Women's Open Trophy reads like a who's who of global superstars, from Brooke Henderson to Annika Sorenstam, Michelle Wie West, Brittany Lincicome, Lydia Ko, and Megan Khang.

THE BEST OF THE BEST

The CPKC Women's Open consistently attracts one of the strongest fields on the LPGA Tour. In 2025, 19 of the top 25 in the Rolex Women's World Golf Rankings competed for Canada's National Women's Open Championship.

THE PLAYERS...

The Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) is one of the longest-running women's professional sports associations in the world. Founded in 1950, the organization has grown from its roots as a playing tour into a nonprofit organization involved in every facet of golf. The LPGA Tour is an exciting global sports property and one of the premier women's professional sports organizations in the world.

Headquartered in Daytona Beach, Florida, the LPGA Tour maintains a strong focus on charity through its tournaments, its grassroots junior and women's programs and its LPGA Foundation.

CPKC has heart

THE LASTING LEGACY...

In 2025, the largest donation in the history of the CPKC Women's Open was made with a $4 million donation to the Hamilton Health Sciences Foundation/MacKids and $502,000 to the Trillium Health Foundation.

In addition to the $4.5 million raised during the 2025 CPKC Women's Open in Mississauga, the CPKC Has Heart campaign has left a lasting impact in all communities the CPKC Women's Open has been played in support of children's heart health:

- 2014 London ($1.3 million)
- 2015 Vancouver ($1.2 million)
- 2016 Calgary ($2 million)
- 2017 Ottawa ($2 million)
- 2018 Regina ($2 million)
- 2019 Aurora ($2.45 million)
- 2020 Vancouver ($3.1 million)
- 2022 Ottawa ($3 million)
- 2023 Vancouver ($3.48 million)
- 2024 Calgary ($4.3 million)
- 2025 Mississauga ($4.5 million)

In 2026, CPKC in partnership with Golf Canada, will continue its history of making a substantial donation to the host community through its CPKC Has Heart community investment program. Since CPKC's title sponsorship of the CPKC Women's Open began, more than $29 million has been raised to support children's heart health in communities across Canada.
